FUCK HIPPIES

“—I still don’t like the idea of you being there all alone with that cashbox,” my husband said for the umpteenth time.

I lay in bed, the phone pressed to my ear, wishing Kent would give it a rest. I needed to start my day. It was going to be a long one.

Kent had initially rejected my plan to throw a garage sale, but I was nothing if not persistent, wearing him down in small increments, week by week, until he had given me the green light. Still, he wasn’t happy about it. Not one damned bit.

“Stop worrying,” I told him. “I’ll be fine, honey.”

“I don’t know . . .”

“We need the money.”

“I can’t argue with you there.”

And he didn’t. The gas shortage was killing us. Kent’s lengthy daily commute was murder on our finances. 1979 was proving to be one nasty bitch of a year.

“I’ll call you throughout the day,” I assured him, “just to let you know that I haven’t been abducted by a gang of sickos . . .”

“Not even a little bit?”

“No.”

The conversation could have gone on forever. Thankfully, Kent was at work and had plenty to do. I cradled the phone with much relief, glancing at the clock on the nightstand. 8:25 a.m. I had a little more than one hour before the garage sale would begin. Having placed an ad in the classifieds section of the local paper, I was expecting a big turnout. Kent and I had set up the garage last night, displaying our old clothes, shoes, books, records, tapes, and various unwanted bric-a-brac on five card tables borrowed from a neighbor who held garage sales frequently.

I peered at the clock once more. Did I have enough time for a quickie? Kent hadn’t fucked me in almost three weeks. Our money problems were really getting the best of him. His stress was constant, killing his sex drive.

Hell, the only thing he wanted was to work!

Like a lot of disgruntled Americans, Kent proudly displayed a FUCK WAR bumper sticker on our car. I shared his sentiment, for sure. Those dirty politicians were making our lives downright miserable. The line at the filling station on the corner was unbelievably long, often stretching several blocks.

Still, there was nothing I could do to change the current political climate. As for my pussy—well, I could do quite a lot . . . even without Kent.

I scooted to the edge of the bed, opened the nightstand drawer, and plucked my trusty dildo. Lifting the hem of my nightie, I spread my legs in lusty anticipation. The toy's bulbous glans felt wonderful on my clit. I was wet in no time, wet and panting with excitement. I plunged the phallus inside me and proceeded to fuck myself . . .

Manipulating the dildo with one hand, I used the other up top to remove the spaghetti straps from my shoulders. Not to brag, but I was blessed with a spectacular set of knockers. Straddling the line between a C and D cup, my tits were every man's dream. I caressed and kneaded the soft flesh, twisting both nipples until they were nice and stiff.

I raised my knees and worked the dildo faster and faster. I was almost there, teetering on the cusp of an explosive orgasm, when the doorbell rang.

Ding-Dong!

"Shit!" I cried out in frustration, royally pissed that somebody had interrupted my playtime. Can't these people read? The ad in the paper clearly read 9:30 a.m. They say the early bird gets the worm. I say the early bird is a royal pain in the ass!

The doorbell rang repeatedly, prompting me to throw on some clothes and hasten to the front door in the living room. I peered through the peephole. Kent would have been proud. "You never can be too careful," he had told me countless times. "There are some real nuts out there . . ."

I didn't know if the guy standing on my front porch was a nut, but he was definitely a poor hippie. I kid you not.

My first customer of the day was a fucking hippie!

I unlocked the deadbolt, removed the chain, and opened the door. He was of average height, thin, his skin the color of cinnamon. A big wooly afro topped his head, drawing attention to a scrawny neck, which seemed incapable of supporting the weight of his hair. He wore a faded red T-shirt, threadbare jeans, and tattered dollar store sneakers. Hard times, I thought.

He held a rolled-up newspaper in his hand. Even from inside the house I could see that he had circled the classified ad. I didn't bother to tell him that he was early. He could read just fine. Undoubtedly, he was a student at the university on the other side of town, probably studying to be a street artist. Not like that is much of a promising future.

"I'm early." He held up the paper. "I can wait if—"

"No, no, you're fine," I told him. "Just wait outside the garage over there. I'll go inside and open the door . . ."

I closed the front door, locked it, and entered the garage through the kitchen door. The garage door had needed work for years. It was a bitch to open and close. Hinges squeaked and springs groaned as I lifted the warped aluminum door, emitting bright morning sunshine into the garage.

His eyes lit up as he surveyed the merchandise. I sat in a lawn chair in front of the kitchen door, trying not to stare at him as he shopped. Shit, I thought irritably, you haven't even had a cup of coffee. As expected, he was looking for clothes. Most of Kent's stuff was too big for him. I was glad, money be damned, hoping he would skedaddle so that I could go inside and fire up the percolator.

He had better luck with Kent's shoes, finding a pair of joggers which fit him well enough. The joggers were practically brand new. They had given Kent awful heel blisters before he had relegated them to the closet floor.

The hippie held up the shoes. "How much?"

"Twenty-five," I told him.

He frowned. "Too much."

"They're practically brand new."

"Too much," he repeated.

"Those are top of the line," I said. "They cost forty dollars."

This was true. I had been with Kent at the athletic store in the mall when he had purchased the shoes. He hated to sell them, but we really needed the money. The hippie wasn't having it; he seemed angry that I was unwilling to lower the price. He kept on and on, trying to persuade me to cut the cost.

"Fifteen," he said. "I'll pay fifteen . . ."

"Can't do it," I told him. "Sorry."

"You're rich living in a nice house," he shot back. "I am a poor Iranian student—"

"Twenty-five," I cut him off. "Take it or leave it."

His voice rose in strident protest. I felt increasingly uncomfortable, but I finally capitulated and sold him the shoes for fifteen dollars. That calmed him down considerably.

It was while he plucked a twenty from his wallet that I noticed the impressive bulge in the front of his jeans.

This 60's throwback was packing some serious artillery!

Call me desperate, call me deranged, but I saw an opportunity and seized it at once. "Do you like it here in Chicago?" I asked him.

"It's a nice place. A little too big for me," he said. "I am here for an education. As soon as I finish school—"

"What about the women? Do you like college girls?"

Sitting there in the lawn chair, I parted my thighs and smiled impishly. My athletic shorts and tight-fitting T-shirt left little to his imagination. His brown eyes roved all over my body. A lewd smile creased his features. He liked what he saw. I figured he was long overdue for some pussy. The coeds at the university wouldn't give him the time of day, I reasoned. And he was too damned broke to pay for sex . . .

"Very pretty," he said.

Was he referring to me, I assume? There was only one way to find out. "How about me?" I asked him. "Am I pretty?"

"Yes," he said. "Very much."

The bulge in his jeans had gotten bigger. 9:30 a.m. was fast approaching. If we were going to do this—well, we had better get started before the bargain-hunting masses started showing up. I got up from the lawn chair and opened the kitchen door, glancing at him over my shoulder. He hesitated for just a moment, then followed me inside.

No sooner did the door close than I knelt before him right there in front of the refrigerator. "Let's see that big cock of yours," I told him.

He proffered a most impressive prick. I was surprised—don't ask me why—to find him circumcised. Not that foreskin would've been a dealbreaker. Oh no. I was wet and horny and determined to finish what I had started in the bedroom before the doorbell had interrupted me.

I lifted his pecker and basted it with my tongue, balls to glans, getting it nice and wet before gobbling him in earnest. He stood there, his jeans and shorts lowered to the floor, his skinny legs trembling as I sucked his dick.

He was nervous. Too nervous. I put him at ease, withdrawing my mouth from his manhood long enough to tell him that he had nothing to worry about. "We're fine," I assured him. "My husband is at work." This helped. The trembling ceased, replaced by a contented sigh as I proceeded to give him sloppy head.

His hippie cock swelled inside my mouth, swelled and stiffened. This turned me on something fierce, prompting me to shove a hand down the front of my shorts. My pussy was soaking wet. I played with my clit, getting hotter and hotter until I couldn't stand it any longer.

I kicked off my flipflops and stepped out of my shorts and panties. My Iranian friend flashed an obscenely white smile. I turned around and leaned over the counter, offering my ass on a proverbial platter.

He didn't hesitate. I felt his hands on my trim hips, his swollen glans nudging the entrance to my cunt . . .

"That's it, baby," I uttered breathily. "Stick it in there. Fuck me good."

He skewered me with a savage jab. I cried out. He felt bigger than he had looked. And he knew how to use it. Boy did he ever! Gripping my waist with both hands, he rammed his rod repeatedly, pounding me with a relentless plunging motion. I lowered my face to the counter, the same counter upon which I prepared meals for Kent; cooking dinner would never be the same again.

The hippie had started to pant. He sounded like a runner approaching the finish line. Close, I thought. Real close. But as for me, well, I was trying to climax too, but I needed more stimulation than this quick fuck was going to give me. Looks like Kent is gonna get a real good fucking tonight.

He pulled out, groaning loudly as he exploded all over my ass. His load was sticky and hot and massive. Clearly, his balls had been filled to capacity.

"Well," I said after catching my breath, "this has certainly been an interesting morning . . ."

He pulled up his pants and made a hasty exit. In the garage he grabbed his shoes from the card table where he had placed them before following me inside.

"I love Chicago!" he declared, then climbed into his shitty car and backed out of the driveway.

"I bet you do," I muttered to myself before finally getting around to making that pot of coffee.

PARTING PAYMENT

"Dan's going to be pissed," Marla said.

"To hell with him," I told her, wheeling into the restaurant parking lot. "Just grab your check and get the hell out of there . . ."

My girlfriend had called the restaurant that morning and asked to have her last paycheck sent via postal mail. Dan, her asshole boss, had refused to play ball, telling Marla that she would have to come to the restaurant in person.

He was angry, of course. Just last week Marla had walked out in the middle of a shift. Having been left in the lurch, he wanted to make life as difficult as possible for his wayward waitress.

Marla hated conflict and confrontation; she had actually toyed with the idea of forgoing the paycheck. "No way, Marla," I had told her. "You worked hard at that place. They owe you." It had taken some doing, but I had finally gotten her to see things my way. After all, she had yet to find another job and we desperately needed the money.

Now she took a deep breath. "Wish me luck . . ."

"You'll be fine, babe," I said, leaving the engine running while she went inside.

The parking lot was relatively empty. It was the late afternoon lull between lunch and dinner, too late for the former, too early for the latter. Dan and his co-owner Andy were probably the only two inside. Not even the prep cooks would be present.

A part of me felt cowardly for remaining in the car while my girlfriend faced the music all alone. If ever she needed my support, the time was now. Still, I decided to sit tight . . .

Dan and Andy stood there in the middle of the kitchen, towering over a crouching Marla as she serviced them with hand and mouth . . .

The whole thing would be over in a matter of minutes. If, on the other hand, Marla remained inside for an inordinately long time—a sure sign of a heated argument—I wouldn't hesitate to enter the restaurant and intervene on her behalf.

"Shit," I muttered to myself, shaking my head and sighing wearily in frustration.

Something was wrong. Marla should have been back by now. Those bastards, Dan and Andy, must be giving her a hard time. They might even be refusing to pay up.

Bracing myself for a fight, I got out of the car and hastened inside the restaurant. I called Marla's name. Getting no response, I crossed the dining room floor, pushed through a swinging door, and entered the kitchen proper.

"Mar—"

I froze in my tracks.

The spectacle which greeted me was a punch in the gut. I did a doubletake, hardly believing my eyes. Dan and Andy stood there in the middle of the kitchen, towering over a crouching Marla as she serviced them with hand and mouth . . .

She sucked Dan's cock, pumping her head frenetically, moaning and groaning as she did so. Her hand, the one not shoved down the front of her shorts, stroked Andy's engorged prick.

I was livid, yet strangely fascinated. The voyeur in me found the spectacle exceedingly hot. Irresistible, even. Still, the dutiful boyfriend in me felt it necessary to put the kibosh on their tawdry threesome.

And I was about to do so when I hesitated, struck by the sobering reality of our meager finances.

Marla was unemployed. My job was the pits, scarcely paying enough to make ends meet.

If my girlfriend had agreed to pleasure her ex-employers in exchange for her final paycheck—well, who was I to stop her! That check would go a long way toward paying our rent . . .

Peeking around the corner of a large convection oven, I watched as things heated up. Having sucked and jerked her ex-bosses to states of supreme hardness, Marla lowered her shorts and panties, turned around, and bent over a prep table.

"Come and get it," she said over her shoulder.

Marla's was a spectacular ass, a tight little apple-shaped marvel just begging to be plundered. Dan flipped a coin to see who would go first. "Tails," he uttered with disappointment. A triumphant Andy moved behind Marla and guided his cock into her pussy.

Unable to restrain myself, I unzipped my chinos and proceeded to jack off. Standing behind Marla, Andy fucked her with a frenzied humping motion. The table shook as he upped the pace. His face twisted with exertion, Andy withdrew and cried out loudly, depositing a large load on my girlfriend's beautiful bum.

"Your turn," he uttered to his business partner.

Still tugging my rod, I watched as Dan had Marla turn around. Facing him, she sat on the edge of the prep table, leaned back, and spread her legs. Dan positioned himself between her thighs and drove it home. Marla lay there atop the table, her body jerking violently with each of his powerful thrusts.

I stroked myself to completion, managing, with some effort, to remain silent as I shot my wad. I would have liked to watch Dan come all over Marla but felt it wise to get out of there lest they discover my presence.

I had been in the car all of five minutes when Marla, her face flushed, her hair disheveled, joined me.

"Well," I said, keying the ignition, "did you get it?"

"I got it." She reached into her purse and produced the check.

I searched her face. "Any problems?"

"Not a one," she told me. "Things went a lot better than I had expected. They were really cool about it . . ."

I pulled out of the parking lot and drove straight to the bank. We were waiting in the drive-thru lane when Marla said, "All that worry for nothing. Thanks for convincing me to go back . . ."

"Of course, babe," I said, even though I was the one who should have been thanking her!

UP HER ALLEY

"You don't have to go home," the bartender told me, "but you can't stay here."

His was a well-worn line. No doubt he was too tired to come up with something more original. Larry's Lounge had been busy all night. Packed house. Or, more appropriately, packed madhouse. He was ready to go home and get some much-needed shut-eye.

Accepting defeat, I downed the dregs of my beer and paid my tab. I felt unwanted and undesirable. Worst of all—I felt old . . .

Larry's Lounge was a hotspot for random, no strings attached sex. At least that's what I had been led to believe by my younger coworkers at the office; they joked about the place and claimed to avoid it like the proverbial plague. Having eavesdropped on their lively break-room conversations, I had decided that the sleazy watering hole was right up my alley.

What a disappointment!

Those twentysomething guys hadn't given me the time of day. I might as well have been invisible as I sat there at the bar looking readily available for anything and everything. Hell, I couldn't even get one of them to light my fucking cigarette! Needless to say, my self-esteem had taken a serious beating.

Now, dragging my forty-year-old bones to the subway station, I scowled at the litter-strewn sidewalks. I had to sidestep half a dozen sleeping bums. Normally these sights wouldn't have bothered me. As a lifelong resident of the city, I had grown accustomed to such things.

But tonight—well, tonight was different. My failure at the bar had put me in a foul mood. "You're not getting any younger," I muttered miserably. I hadn't been properly fucked in many months. If I didn't get some action soon . . .

"Lookin' good, baby!"

I froze in my tracks. Peering into the dark alley, I saw two vague shapes leaning against the wall. The orange tip of a cigarette glowed in the gloom.

"How much?" the same voice belled.

His friend, the smoker, tittered.

"I'm not a working girl," I shot back. Then, feeling particularly brazen, I said, "Go fuck yourself——"

"Nah," the smoker replied, "we'd rather fuck you."

I wasn't scared. Had they wanted to rob or rape me I would've already been snatched or threatened with a weapon. They were just a couple of harmless winos.

"You two bums couldn't even get it up,” I told them.

“Says you,” the first voice replied.

They emerged from the alley. Swathed in moonlight, their features were on full display. I was shocked. They weren’t bums at all. Far from it.

They were cops!

Two young rookies on stakeout, I reasoned.

The smoker discarded his cigarette. “You ever made it with a cop?”

ing my head back and forth as he swelled inside my mouth. Meanwhile, the smoker commenced to jerking off; he held the flashlight in one hand, his prick in the other, giving new meaning to the term “multi-tasking.”

Sucking cock invariably made me wetter than a waterslide. My pussy was in dire need of a thorough pounding. I rose and moved a few paces to the wall behind the cop whose cock I had just legs as he skewered me with that big dick of his. Moments later he was hammering me with powerful thrusts. I leaned into the wall, my hands flat against the aging bricks, delighting in every rigid inch.

It wasn’t long before the two cops traded places. The one who just fucked me, his cock dripping semen, took over the lighting duties; he trained the beam on my ass as his partner entered me. The

“No,” I said truthfully.

“How about two cops?” the other one asked.

My answer was the same as before.

“You’re really missing out,” he said.

“I’ll be the judge of that,” I replied.

A delivery truck sped past, followed by a pair of taxicabs in rapid succession, prompting us to retreat to the privacy of the alley. It was too dark for my liking. I wanted to see what I was working with, so to speak, so I asked the smoker to employ his flashlight. I was already kneeling when he trained the light on his partner’s cock.

“There you go.” He held the beam steady. “Suck his dick——”

I gobbled his partner greedily, pump-sucked. The yellow beam followed my every move as I placed my hands against the wall.

“Come on,” I said over my shoulder. “Fuck me good——”

The non-smoker lifted the hem of my cocktail dress above my hips. I felt his strong hands lower my panties. The cotton brief stretched like taffy between my smoker had a smaller dick. Still, he knew how to use it. He reamed me with a frenetic stabbing motion, giving no quarter as he ravaged my fortysomething cunt.

Unlike his partner who had come inside me, he pulled out and shot his load all over my ass. Hot beads spattered my cheeks as I experienced a raging orgasm.

The young officers escorted me to the subway station where we parted ways, though not before I thanked them for their service.

“We need more cops like you two,” I told them. “The city might not be a safer place, but it sure would be better for horny women like me!”

Daria and I decided to try 'glamping' and went out this weekend to give it a go. We found a quiet spot and I went out to wipe mud off the car. But Darla had other plans for the day. She opened the door and pulled a couple vibes out of the glove compartment. Ultimately, we found glamping to be a whole lotta sexy fun.
